Bernardi's Italian Restaurants

Nildo Arthur Bernardi founded Mona's Italian Restaurant as a bustling beer parlor in Toluca, Illinois in 1933. Many Italians had immigrated to Toluca to work the coal mines that were prevalent during this time in Central Illinois.

The name Mona was derived from the orchestra called Mona's Harmony Kings, that Mr. Bernardi formed in the late 20's and early 30's. When Mona's Restaurant opened, the Pabst Brewing Company donated a neon sign with the name Mona below it and the rest is history.

One of Mona's three sons, Jerry, joined him business in 1948 and managed it from the mid-70's until the mid-90's. Mona's northern Italian heritage introduced their famous tortellini and spaghetti in 1933 and it continues to be their trademark pasta. Mona's has grown from the tiny beer parlor to seat over 260 people and is still managed by family members.

Mona Bernardi purchased Capponi's restaurant in 1965 from long-time friend and competitor, Leno Capponi. His son Michael took over Capponi's in 1966 and it has grown to seat over the 220 people and although the same family heritage continues through both restaurants, each features their own distinctive Italian specialties.

For over 75 years people from all over the state would converge on this small town for great food resulting in Bernardi's Restaurants famous reputation!

Bon Appetito!

The logo for Bernardi's II features the name "BERNARDI'S II" in a bold, serif font, enclosed within a stylized, curved banner that arches over the text.
